Online Umpiring Theory Exam Further Instructions

Regarding the problems encountered in accessing the Online Umpiring Theory Exam, please retry using Google Chrome as this is the preferred browser for the system.

1. Login to my.netball.com.au using Google Chrome
2. Click the "Online Learning" tab on the rightmost after login
3. Click on the blue "info" button next to "Section I Umpire Exam" (should you have enrolled before)

Please note:

Should there be any error pages popped up during or if you are trapped and then re-login after that, press "home" button in the bottom of the error page (e.g. No Access for this user page)

If you try and retry the exam from MyNetball, it won't let you enrol a second time, so use the "Goto MyLearning Dashboard" to get to the learning system and it will let you retry the exam as many times as you like.

Email hkna@hkolympic.org should you have any further enquiries, preferably with the screenshot of the page where you have problems with.
